

Dead Reckoning

13 x 60 minute episodes

Something brushes your face, but nothing is there. A door slams but there is no breeze. Chills move up and down your spine when you feel the realm of the paranormal fill your presence. Does that mean that ghosts do exist?

Cody Polston is the founder / leader of the Southwest Ghost Hunters Association, a band of rogue ghost hunters with attitude and a heavy metal beat. Known as the original "Ghost Huntin' Bad Ass," Cody is on a personal quest to answer how and why ghosts exist. Armed with the scientific method, the latest technology, and a haunted hearse called "Grace," Cody searches legendary sites to gather real evidence of an actual haunting. He and his assembled team of believers and skeptics investigate claims of the unexplained ... leaving no "headstone" unturned. With 20 plus years experience and a highly regarded reputation, Cody researches the theoretical science of the paranormal with assistance from today's top experts and access to haunted locations that have never been explored. And in the end, he breaks down what is simply folklore... and what is hard scientific evidence of the beyond.
